3) Objectives and Targets

We do not currently hold a documented pollution prevention plan.

4) Progress in reducing toxic substances

The only notable toxic substance emissions are the particles that become airborne during the manufacturing processes, either by means of welding or plasma cutting of metal plates. This ratio is directly related to the amount of production completed in a calendar year. All unused metal solids are sent to an offsite recycling facility.

There was a slight increase in 2012 from the previous year. This was due to an increase in production, and thus the increase in percentage versus the previous year is high, the actual amount of increase in toxic emissions is minimal and within acceptable standards. Nevertheless, we are planning the installation of air filtration systems soon to prevent further toxic emissions.

5) Certification

I, Nathalie St-Pierre certify that the above-mentioned information is accurate.
